Religious Pluralism in Your School

A 1 and ½ day workshop offered by Interfaith Youth Core (IFYC) and GYLI

Join experienced trainers from GYLI and IFYC for activities and dialogue about fostering religious pluralism in a school environment

- Learn tools to assess interfaith engagement at your school, and activities to engage the religious diversity of your classroom
- Share best practices with other educators
- Create an action plan to increase religious pluralism in your school

Teaching Leadership for Global Issues

GYLI and SIT Graduate Institute
Partner to offer online graduate program

Objective: To transfer the GYLI model of learning into your professional work as an educator and to increase your effectiveness as a teacher of leadership in the classroom

Format: The program is broken into two parts

- 1) one day of training, either in person or by online webinar (see calendar for training dates)
- 2) 7 months of online inquiry (September-April)

Eligibility: This program is offered to adults who have participated in GYLI programs.

Credit: This program is offered at two levels - graduate certificate and graduate course credit (1 credit).

Exploring the Global Classroom

How do I make my classroom global, while working with a limited budget?

Date and location:

November 23, 2009

Ursuline Academy, Dallas, TX

- Learn activities, trends, and possible projects for global education
- Share resources and best practices of global education with other professionals
- Tour Ursuline Academy's newly constructed LEED facilities
